Jubilee Park & Community Center was founded in 1997 in celebration of the 50th anniversary of Saint Michael & All Angels Episcopal Church. The congregation marked the occasion by making a long-term commitment to one of Dallas’ most under-served neighborhoods.

Jubilee Park is a 62-block neighborhood in southeast Dallas bounded by Fair Park, I-30 and East Grand Avenue, and the surrounding area.

- 46% of families in Jubilee Park live below the poverty line
- 72% of adults in the community do not have a high school diploma
- $14,850 average household income of Jubilee Park residents
- 98% of area students receive free or reduced lunch

What We Do: Comprehensive Community Revitalization

- Public Safety
- Public Health
- Education
- Affordable Housing
- Economic Development

What We Offer

- Workforce Development
  - English as a Second Language
  - Computer Skills Courses
  - Partnership with Dallas Community College District
- Sports & Athletics
  - Soccer
  - Basketball
  - Zumba and Aerobics
- Public Safety
  - Largest Volunteer Patrol Program
  - Monthly Crime Watch meetings
  - 17 cameras throughout Jubilee Park
- Public Health
  - Yearly health fair
  - Semiannual Mammograms
  - Women’s Healthy Lifestyle Initiative
  - Jubilee Asthma Pilot
  - School immunizations

Our Impact

- 24 Senior Apartments
- Construction of 28 Affordable Green Homes by 2016
- Over 30,000 meals served to children in the afterschool program
- Over 100 low income senior citizens receive hot meals
- Over 800 community volunteers provide 27,000 hours of service, the equivalent of 13 full-time employees
- 64% drop in the crime rate of Jubilee Park since 2007
- Over 400 students in K-8th grade attend Jubilee’s academic based afterschool and summer program each year
- Over 200 children ages 0 to 5 receive free early childhood education through Head Start
- Over 100 clients served every year